

Dental Health in Teens: Drug Awareness

10 Question Quiz

The answers to the question will be in bold and underlined

- Which of the following is/are effect(s) of taking drugs?
A. Mouth infections and gum sores
B. Bad breath
C. Black stains
D. All of the above
- Tobacco use increases your risk of oral cancer.
A. True B. False
- Smokeless tobacco is not as harmful to oral health as smoking tobacco.
A. True B. False
- Which of the following is the most commonly used drug among young people?
A. Tobacco
B. Methamphetamine
C. Alcohol D. All of the above
- Youth who drink alcohol are _____ times more likely to use cocaine than those who do not:
A. 2
B. 5
C. 10
D. 50
- Heavy drinking causes dental problems by:
A. Decreasing healing rate after a dental injury
B. Causing irritation to the gums, tongue and oral tissue
C. Increasing your chances of tooth decay
D. All of the above
- Crack cocaine use causes all of the following dental problems, EXCEPT:
A. Gum sores
B. Damage to the surface of teeth
C. Increased saliva in the mouth D. Hole in the separation of the nostrils & nasal septum
- Which is TRUE of methamphetamine:
A. It decreases energy
B. It causes dry mouth and wide-spread tooth decay
C. Tolerance and addiction develop slowly
D. Has a low potential for abuse
- Which of the following are signs of methamphetamine use?
A. Nervousness and constant talking
B. Loss of appetite and rapid weight loss
C. Dilated pupils and rapid eye movements
D. All of the above
- Long term effect(s) of methamphetamine use is/are:
A. Hallucinations
B. Memory loss
C. There are no long term effects
D. A and B