

DENTAL HEALTH IN TEEN S TEEN EATING DISORDERS S

PRE-TEST: HOW MUCH DO YOU KNOW ABOUT EATING DISORDERS THAT AFFECT TEENS?

a

- 1) Which of these are NOT a common type of eating disorder?
A) Anorexia Nervosa
B) Bulimia Nervosa
C) Binge or Compulsive Eating
D) Body Dysmorphic Disorder
[SLIDE #4, BULLETS #1-3]
- 2) Which of the following are health problems associated with Bulimia Nervosa?
A) Loss of tooth enamel
B) Tooth sensitivity to hot and cold
C) Inflammation of the esophagus
D) Irregular bowel movements
E) All of the above
[SLIDE #16, BULLETS #1 & #3; SLIDE #17, BULLETS #2 & #3]
- 3) Anorexia nervosa is only diagnosed in females
A) True
B) False
[SLIDE #8, BULLET #6]
- 4) What percentage of middle and high school girls have bulimia?
A) 0%
B) 1-3%
C) 5-10%
D) 30%
[SLIDE #14, BULLET #2]
- 5) Binge eating disorder could potentially lead to type II diabetes and heart disease
A) True
B) False
[SLIDE #22, BULLET #1-1,1-4]
- 6) Suffering from Bulimia nervosa can:
A) Decrease salivary flow
B) Decrease risk of becoming obese
C) Regulate bowel movement
D) Decrease cavities
[SLIDE #17, BULLET #5]
- 7) One of the oral health problems associated with Anorexia Nervosa is loss of jaw bone density
A) True
B) False
[SLIDE #11, BULLET #4]